Background

Pier 21 is a National Historic Site which was the gateway to Canada for one million immigrants between 1928 and 1971. It also served as the departure point for 500,000 Canadian Military personnel during the Second World War. It reopened on July 1, 1999 as an interpretive centre, and in February 2011, Pier 21 became the Canadian Museum of Immigration at Pier 21.

The Canadian Museum of Immigration at Pier 21 was established by Parliament through amendments to the Museums Act which came into force on November 25, 2010.

The Museum is a distinct legal entity, wholly-owned by the Crown, which operates at arm’s length from the Government in its day to day operations, activities and programming. The Museum is governed by the regime for Crown Corporation control and accountability established under Part X of the Financial Administration Act. It is a member of the Canadian Heritage Portfolio and reports to Parliament through the Minister of Canadian Heritage.

Responsibilities

The mandate of the Canadian Museum of Immigration at Pier 21 is

“to explore the theme of immigration to Canada in order to enhance public understanding of the experiences of immigrants as they arrived in Canada, of the vital role immigration has played in the building of Canada and of the contributions of immigrants to Canada’s culture, economy and way of life.”

The Museum's Board of Trustees serves as its governing body and is accountable to Parliament for the stewardship of the Museum through the Minister of Canadian Heritage.

The Museum has three core responsibilities, listed below, as well as internal services.

1. Visitor Experience and Connections: Canadians have access to – and are engaged in building – museum content and programming that reflects the diverse experiences and contributions of immigrants throughout Canada’s history.

2. Accommodation: The Museum’s facilities contribute to a rich, welcoming and engaging visitor experience; are safe and accessible for visitors, staff and volunteers; and are maintained in a cost-effective manner that builds a workplace that is fair, enabling, healthy and safe and a workforce that is productive, principled, adaptive and representative of the diversity inherent in Canadian society.

3. Fundraising and Commercial Activities: The Museum’s fundraising and commercial activities provide essential financial support.
