

CALL FOR ARTWORK CANADA: DAY 1

Call for Artwork Frequently Asked Questions

1. When is the Call for Artwork submission due?

August 30th, 2016, at 2:00pm ADT

2. When will the artwork be on display?

March 18th, 2017 to November 12th, 2017

3. When does the artwork need to be completed for installation?

Artwork must be on-site by March 3rd, 2017; however, we request a detailed breakdown of lead-time required for installation and in the case of new works a schedule for completion. Also, please indicate if the proposed work has any specific maintenance requirements.

4. Is there a fee or honorarium?

A flat fee of $2500 will be provided for selected works covering the loan and exhibition rights.

5. Does the Museum acquire the work?

No, the work remains the property of the artist and will be returned after the completion of the exhibition.

6. Do the artists have access to the Museum collections?

Inspiration can be drawn from the collections. Items from the collections will not be incorporated into the artwork.

7. What is the size of the artwork requested?

Works should be small to medium in size so as to fit within the context of the exhibition. Please identify size and if the work is scale-able in order to provide the maximum flexibility and incorporation into the exhibition. For smaller works, free standing display cases are available ranging from 18, 24, or 30" square with a 12" or 18" high glass tops. Wall space available for larger works ranges from 1.5' wide x 8' high to a maximum of: 10' wide x 8' high.

8. Is there a preferred medium for the artwork?

Works of any genre or discipline that are durable and easy to maintain (painting, sculpture, sound, video, etc.) will be considered.

9. What is the format for the submission?

Mail-in hard or soft copies on a CD or USB key. By e-mail please submit as word or pdf documents, maximum file size is 5MB for e-mail.